My recommended 20-day private route through four faces of Brazil: colourful, Afro-Brazilian Salvador da Bahia, three nights at a lodge in the South Pantanal among caimans, capybaras and hyacinth macaws, five days snorkelling in the crystal-clear rivers and caves of Bonito, the Iguazu Falls from both the Brazilian and the Argentine side, and finally Rio de Janeiro with Corcovado, Sugarloaf Mountain and Copacabana. You travel with your own party on your own dates. In the Pantanal and Bonito you choose between self-drive and a private driver; in the cities and at Iguazu a private driver takes you around.

✓ Dates completely free

✓ Eat wherever you like

Highlights

- ★ Salvador's baroque Pelourinho (UNESCO), capoeira and Afro-Brazilian cuisine
- ★ The sea turtles of Projeto TAMAR and the coast of Praia do Forte (July–October: chance of humpback whales)
- ★ Three nights full board at a lodge on the Miranda River in the South Pantanal: boat, jeep and night safaris
- ★ Snorkelling among the fish in the crystal-clear Rio da Prata and Rio Sucuri in Bonito
- ★ The blue lake of Gruta do Lago Azul and red macaws at Buraco das Araras
- ★ The Iguaçu Falls from two sides: the Brazilian panorama and the Argentine Devil's Throat
- ★ Rio de Janeiro: Christ the Redeemer on Corcovado, Santa Teresa, the Selarón Steps and sunset on Sugarloaf Mountain

DAY 5-8 Jaguar by the Rio Negro in the Pantanal

DAY 11 The blue lake of Gruta do Lago Azul

My recommended route

This is the route as I put it together for you. It is a starting point, not a fixed programme: leave out what doesn't appeal to you, add what you would like to do and travel at your own pace. Everything below is arranged for you in advance. Prefer a guide? I can add a local guide to any activity.

DAY 1 Arrival in Salvador da Bahia SALVADOR

Flight from Brussels via Lisbon to Salvador, landing around 10 pm local time. Your private driver is waiting in the arrivals hall with a name sign and takes you to your hotel in the historic centre, close to the Pelourinho (approx. 40 minutes).

DAY 2 Salvador: baroque, capoeira and Bonfim SALVADOR • BREAKFAST

A full city day at your own pace. Through the colourful lanes of the Pelourinho (UNESCO) to the gilded São Francisco church and Terreiro de Jesus. Down the Elevador Lacerda to the lower city and the Mercado Modelo, then by taxi to the Bonfim church with its coloured ribbons. At a capoeira school you see how dance and martial art come together. My tip for the evening: a moqueca baiana; you get my addresses.

Colonial façades on Largo do Pelourinho

DAY 3 Day trip to Praia do Forte SALVADOR • BREAKFAST

Your private driver takes you in approx. 1h15 along the north coast to Praia do Forte. Visit Projeto TAMAR, Brazil's best-known sea turtle project, and the ruins of the 16th-century Garcia d'Ávila castle. Time to swim in the natural rock pools and have lunch in the fishing village. From July to October there is an optional boat trip to look for humpback whales. You decide when to drive back to Salvador.

DAY 4 Flight to Campo Grande CAMPO GRANDE • BREAKFAST

Free morning. Private transfer to the airport and a domestic flight with a connection to Campo Grande, capital of Mato Grosso do Sul (departure approx. 11 am, arrival approx. 4.30 pm; clocks go back one hour). A driver meets you and takes you to your hotel in the centre.

DAY 5 Into the South Pantanal ZUID-PANTANAL (PANTANAL JUNGLE LODGE) • BREAKFAST • LUNCH • DINNER

If you self-drive, you pick up your rental car in Campo Grande in the morning; otherwise your private driver is ready. Drive of approx. 4 hours (320 km) west, the last stretch on the unpaved Estrada Parque, to your lodge on the Miranda River at Passo do Lontra. On the way you already spot the first herons, jabirus and caimans. In the afternoon a first boat trip on the river at sunset, with the lodge guides. Full board at the lodge.

DAY 6 Pantanal: by boat and on foot ZUID-PANTANAL (PANTANAL JUNGLE LODGE) • BREAKFAST • LUNCH • DINNER

An early start, when the animals are most active. With the lodge's nature guides by boat and canoe on the Miranda River and on foot along the banks: capybaras, howler monkeys, kingfishers, hyacinth macaws and, with luck, giant otters. In the evening a spotlight night safari looking for caiman eyes, foxes and owls. Seeing a jaguar is possible but never guaranteed. Your car stays parked today.

DAY 7Pantanal: safari and pantaneiro life ZUID-PANTANAL (PANTANAL JUNGLE LODGE) ♦ BREAKFAST • LUNCH • DINNER

Safari in an open vehicle along the Estrada Parque, a horseback ride or a walk on the nature trails, each with a lodge guide, and if you wish, piranha fishing the way the pantaneiros do it. Relaxed afternoon in the hammock overlooking the river.

DAY 8From the Pantanal to Bonito BONITO ♦ BREAKFAST • LUNCH

Last early activity in the Pantanal and lunch at the lodge. Then you drive yourself or with your private driver in approx. 3–3.5 hours via Miranda to Bonito, the eco-tourism town at the foot of the Serra da Bodoquena. You stay five nights; your vouchers for all excursions are waiting at our local agency.

DAY 9Rio da Prata and Buraco das Araras BONITO ♦ BREAKFAST • LUNCH

You drive yourself or with your driver to the fazenda (approx. 50 km). With mask, snorkel and wetsuit you float, behind a licensed guide (required by law in Bonito), approx. 2 km down the Rio da Prata among schools of dourados and piraputangas in water as clear as glass. Lunch at the fazenda (included). In the afternoon Buraco das Araras, a huge sinkhole 100 m deep where red-and-green macaws nest.

Red-and-green macaw at Buraco das Araras

DAY 10Boca da Onça waterfalls BONITO ♦ BREAKFAST • LUNCH

Drive to the Serra da Bodoquena (approx. 60 km, partly unpaved) for the guided walk along the Boca da Onça waterfalls, including the highest waterfall in Mato Grosso do Sul (approx. 156 m). The trail has many steps; along the way you swim in natural pools. Lunch included.

DAY 11Gruta do Lago Azul and the Formoso River BONITO ♦ BREAKFAST

In the morning, when the light is at its best, you descend approx. 300 steps with a guide into the Gruta do Lago Azul to the deep-blue underground lake. In the afternoon to Eco Park Porto da Ilha for an inflatable boat trip on the Formoso River, with small cascades and time to swim.

DAY 12São Miguel cave and Rio Sucuri BONITO ♦ BREAKFAST

Over a suspended walkway through the forest to the São Miguel cave with its stalactites. Then a final guided snorkelling float, this time on the Rio Sucuri, one of the clearest rivers in the world, with water plants like an underwater garden. Last evening in Bonito.

DAY 13To Foz do Iguaçu FOZ DO IGUAÇU ♦ BREAKFAST

Early departure and a drive of approx. 4 hours to Campo Grande airport, where you return your rental car or your driver drops you off. Domestic flight with a connection to Foz do Iguaçu (departure approx. noon). A driver takes you to your hotel in Foz. A long travel day, with a quiet evening. Prefer no early drive? Then we plan an extra night in Campo Grande.

DAY 14Iguaçu: the Brazilian side FOZ DO IGUAÇU ♦ BREAKFAST

Private transfer to Iguaçu National Park (UNESCO). At your own pace you follow the approx. 1.2 km trail along the gorge with the grand panorama over the 275 falls, all the way to the walkway close to the Devil's Throat. Bring a rain jacket. Free afternoon, or optionally the Macuco Safari boat under the falls or the Parque das Aves bird park.

DAY 15Iguazú: the Argentine side FOZ DO IGUAÇU ♦ BREAKFAST

Day trip to Argentina with your private driver, who is authorised to cross the border and helps you with the formalities on the Tancredo Neves bridge (passport required). In Iguazú National Park, take the Tren Ecológico to the walkways above the Devil's Throat, where the Iguazú river thunders into the abyss. Then the Upper and Lower Circuits among falls, coatís and butterflies. Back in Foz in the late afternoon.

DAY 16Flight to Rio de Janeiro RIO DE JANEIRO ♦ BREAKFAST

Transfer to the airport and a direct flight of approx. 2 hours to Rio de Janeiro (departure approx. 11.35 am). Your private driver meets you; in the (late) afternoon he drops you off for a walk through the colonial centre: Praça XV, the Paço Imperial, Candelária church and the Theatro Municipal. Then on to your hotel or apartment in Copacabana.

DAY 17 Corcovado, Santa Teresa and Sugarloaf RIO DE JANEIRO ♦ BREAKFAST

A day with your private driver. Early by cog train through the Tijuca forest to the Christ statue on Corcovado, ahead of the crowds. Then to the hillside district of Santa Teresa with its studios, the Lapa arches and the mosaic Selarón Steps. By cable car from Urca to the top of Sugarloaf Mountain for sunset over the bay.

DAY 18 Tijuca Forest and Rio's beaches RIO DE JANEIRO ♦ BREAKFAST

Morning jeep tour in Tijuca National Park, one of the largest urban forests in the world: short walk to a waterfall and the Vista Chinesa viewpoint. Free afternoon for the beaches of Copacabana and Ipanema and sunset on the Arpoador rock.

DAY 19 Guanabara Bay boat trip and return flight AAN BOORD ♦ BREAKFAST

Boat trip on Guanabara Bay, seeing Rio, Sugarloaf and Niterói from the water; a driver takes you to the pier and back. In the afternoon he collects you at your hotel and drops you at the airport for your overnight flight via Lisbon to Brussels.

DAY 20 Arrival in Brussels

Arrival in Brussels, with Copacabana sand in your shoes and the roar of Iguaçu still in your ears. A few days later I call you to hear how it went.

Corcovado and Sugarloaf from the Tijuca forest

What I arrange for you

1 Airport pickup

You land in Salvador around 10 pm. Your driver waits in the arrivals hall with a name sign; he tracks your flight and also waits if it is delayed. The drive to the historic centre takes approx. 40 minutes. In Campo Grande, Foz do Iguaçu and Rio a driver is also waiting after each flight, and on the last day you are collected at your hotel in Rio and dropped at the airport.

2 Hotels

Every night is booked and confirmed in advance, at the level you choose: Budget, Comfort or Premium. Prefer another hotel? I change it.

3 Transport

You choose: self-drive with a rental car waiting for you, or a private driver and private transfers. Domestic flights, trains and boats where they make sense, all booked in advance.

4 Activities, at your pace

The activities and entrance tickets on the route. No guide or group travels with you: you set the pace, and anything you would rather skip, you simply leave out.

5 Eat wherever you like

Breakfast is included, as are the meals at remote camps and lodges where there is no alternative. For the rest I give you my restaurant tips, but you are completely free to choose where you eat. I never send you somewhere because it earns me something.

Estimated prices per person

PER PERSON, BASED ON 2 TRAVELLERS, EXCL. INTERNATIONAL FLIGHT

ACCOMMODATION LEVEL	Self-drive	Private driver
	rental car, everything pre-booked	private transfers and driver
Budget simple, clean and well located	€3,260 p.p.	€3,690 p.p.
Comfort characterful mid-range	€3,840 p.p.	€4,260 p.p.
Premium the best addresses on the ground	€5,310 p.p.	€5,710 p.p.

WITH 4 TRAVELLERS

approx. 11% off per person: you share the car and driver. E.g. Comfort, private driver: approx. €3,790 p.p.

TRAVELLING SOLO supplement of approx. 55%: you carry the room and transport alone. E.g. Comfort, private driver: approx. €6,605 p.p.

INTERNATIONAL FLIGHT

I book your flight as part of your trip; the flight price for your dates is in your personal quote. Flight Brussels–Salvador, returning from Rio de Janeiro, not included: allow about € 900–1,250 p.p. depending on the month (July and August are the most expensive). I find you the best flight with your quote.

SELF-DRIVE

In Brazil you self-drive where it makes sense: in the Pantanal and Bonito (days 5 to 13). You pick up your rental car in Campo Grande and return it at the airport there, with no one-way fee. Roads are quiet and good (BR-262), with an unpaved stretch along the Estrada Parque to the lodge and dirt roads to the fazendas around Bonito; with the car you drive yourself to each excursion. Your Belgian licence and passport are sufficient (an international driving permit is recommended), you drive on the right, and you do not drive after dark: animals cross the road. In Salvador, Foz do Iguaçu and Rio you do not drive; there we arrange transfers and drivers, because city traffic and safety make a rental car a poor idea.

WITH A PRIVATE DRIVER

With a private driver you never have to drive yourself. In Mato Grosso do Sul a driver takes you from Campo Grande to the lodge, from the lodge to Bonito, to your excursions every day and back to the airport on day 13. In Salvador, Foz do Iguaçu and Rio you have a driver for the airport transfers and excursion days in both formulas; to Argentina you travel with a driver who is authorised to cross the border. Drivers speak Portuguese and sometimes a little English or Spanish; I can always interpret over WhatsApp.

ESTIMATED PRICES

Estimated prices: per person, based on 2 travellers sharing a room, excl. international flight, estimated from desk research (2027 price level). The binding price is the one in your personal proposal and booking confirmation.

Estimated price. In high season the price can be higher, in low season lower; your exact price is in your personal quote.

Three accommodation levels

Budget

Simple, well-reviewed hotels and pousadas with breakfast (e.g. Pousada Colonial Chile in Salvador, Hotel Concord in Campo Grande, Pousada Ouro Preto in Bonito, Viale Iguassu in Foz, a simple hotel in Copacabana). In the Pantanal a simple fazenda pousada with full board and activities (e.g. Pousada Santa Clara).

Comfort

The hotels from my own trip, or similar: a characterful hotel near the Pelourinho (e.g. Bahiacafé Hotel), Hotel Flat Afonso Pena in Campo Grande, the Pantanal Jungle Lodge on the Miranda River, a pousada in Bonito (e.g. Pousada Águas de Bonito), a Mercure-type hotel in Foz and a good Copacabana hotel (e.g. Windsor Copa).

Premium

The finest addresses, including my personal favourites: Gorges Residence in Salvador, a fazenda lodge with private guide in the Pantanal, the holiday home Rancho Verde on the Rio Formosinho or a top pousada in Bonito, a hotel near the falls in Foz and a sea-view hotel or apartment in Rio. These are the best boutique hotels, pousadas and lodges (approx. €110–300 per room), not five-star chains; true luxury on request.

Possible guided moments

Prefer a guide? I can add a local guide to any activity.

- ✦ Bonito: a licensed guide is required by law on every excursion (municipal law 689/1995); the guide is always included in your voucher
- ✦ Pantanal: the lodge's nature guides lead the boat trips, walks and safaris; they are part of the lodge package
- ✦ Salvador: a private guide for the city day
- ✦ Iguazú: a local guide for the Argentine side
- ✦ Rio de Janeiro: a private guide for the centre, Corcovado, Santa Teresa and Lapa
- ✦ Prefer a guide? I can add a local guide to any activity.

Ideas to adapt the route

- Shorter (14–15 days): without Salvador, flying straight to Campo Grande or Rio
- Jaguar extension in the North Pantanal (Porto Jofre) from Cuiabá, July to October
- Three days in Bonito instead of five, with the excursions that appeal most
- An extra night in Campo Grande on day 12 to avoid the early drive on day 13
- Beach days in Paraty or on Ilha Grande after Rio

→ A night on the Argentine side of Iguazú (Puerto Iguazú)

→ In Rio a sea-view apartment instead of a hotel

Included

- ✓ 18 nights at the comfort level of your choice (Budget, Comfort or Premium): 15 nights in hotels and a pousada (double room, breakfast included) and 3 nights full board at a lodge in the South Pantanal, with all lodge activities
- ✓ Airport pickup in Salvador and drop-off at Rio de Janeiro airport; all airport transfers in between
- ✓ Domestic flights Salvador–Campo Grande, Campo Grande–Foz do Iguaçu and Foz do Iguaçu–Rio de Janeiro (incl. 1 checked bag)
- ✓ Pantanal and Bonito (days 5–13), your choice: rental car with full insurance and our route notes, or a private driver for all drives and excursions
- ✓ Private driver for Praia do Forte, the two Iguaçu days (incl. the border crossing to Argentina) and in Rio
- ✓ The guides that are compulsory or genuinely needed: a licensed guide on every Bonito excursion (required by law) and the lodge's nature guides in the Pantanal
- ✓ All listed excursions and tickets: seven Bonito excursions with the mandatory voucher (2 lunches included), entrance fees to both Iguaçu national parks, the Corcovado train, the Sugarloaf cable car, the Tijuca jeep tour and the bay boat trip

Not included

- International flight (optional add-on; allow approx. €900–1,250 pp, depending on the month)
- Other meals and drinks (you get my restaurant recommendations)
- When self-driving: fuel, tolls and parking (indicative ± €120 per car for the self-drive section; paid locally) and the deposit on your credit card
- Tips for guides, drivers and lodge staff
- Travel and cancellation insurance (medical insurance is also required to enter Argentina)
- Vaccinations (yellow fever recommended)
- Optional activities such as whale watching at Praia do Forte, the Macuco Safari or Parque das Aves at Iguaçu
- Personal expenses

Practical information

VISA (BELGIAN CITIZENS)

Brazil: no visa required for tourist stays up to 90 days per 180-day period; the e-visa Brazil reintroduced in April 2025 applies only to nationals of e.g. the USA, Canada and Australia, not to Belgians. Passport valid for the whole stay (6 months recommended); an ID card is not sufficient. Argentina (day trip to the Argentine side of Iguazú): no visa for Belgians, passport required; since Decree 366/2025 foreigners must declare on entry that they hold health insurance.

HEALTH

Yellow fever vaccination is recommended for all travellers to Brazil (Brazilian authorities recommend it country-wide; the Pantanal and Iguaçu are in the risk zone) and for the Argentine side of Iguazú (Misiones); at least 10 days before departure. Malaria: no risk in Salvador and Rio, low risk in the Pantanal and at Iguaçu, so mosquito protection is usually sufficient. Dengue, chikungunya (outbreak in Mato Grosso do Sul) and Oropouche occur: protect against mosquitoes. No tap water. Consult a travel clinic (ITG/Wanda) at least 6 weeks before departure.

CURRENCY & PAYMENT

Brazilian real (BRL), approx. R$ 5.9 to €1 at the end of September 2026. Cards and Pix widely accepted; some cash for tips and small purchases. No cash needed on the Argentine side (entrance fee included).

FLIGHT TIME FROM BRUSSELS

No direct flight; approx. 13–15 hours to Salvador via Lisbon (TAP) and approx. 14–16 hours back from Rio. Domestic flights of 2 to 5 hours (with connection).

TIME DIFFERENCE

Salvador, Foz do Iguaçu, Rio and the Argentine side: UTC-3, 5 hours behind Belgian summer time. Mato Grosso do Sul (Campo Grande, Pantanal, Bonito): UTC-4, 6 hours behind. No daylight saving time in Brazil.

LANGUAGE

Portuguese; limited English outside hotels and tourist sites. Spanish on the Argentine side.

MEALS

Breakfast is included every day, as are the meals at the Pantanal lodge and the two fazenda lunches in Bonito, where there is no alternative. For the other meals you get my restaurant recommendations, but you are completely free to choose where and when you eat: I never steer you to expensive restaurants in return for a commission.

GUIDES

By default you travel without a guide. Prefer a guide? I can add a local guide to any activity.

Travelling responsibly

Bonito is a global example of managed eco-tourism: every excursion works with a daily visitor cap, a mandatory voucher and a licensed guide, and we follow these rules strictly. In the Pantanal you stay at a lodge that works with local pantaneiro guides, and in Salvador you visit a capoeira school from the Afro-Brazilian community. We ask for biodegradable, reef-safe sunscreen (in Bonito sunscreen is not allowed at all before snorkelling). Flight CO₂ emissions can be offset through a certified project.
