My recommended private route through Colombia: Bogotá by bike, two nights on a coffee hacienda dating from 1894, reborn Medellín with Comuna 13 and Guatapé, colonial Cartagena with a boat trip to the Rosario Islands, and to finish the wild Caribbean coast: hiking in Tayrona National Park, a visit to the Kogi and three nights on a jungle finca in the Sierra Nevada. You travel with your own party on your own dates; airport pickup, hotels, private drivers and three domestic flights are arranged in advance, and you change whatever you like.

My recommended route

This is the route as I put it together for you. It is a starting point, not a fixed programme: leave out what doesn't appeal to you, add what you would like to do and travel at your own pace. Everything below is arranged for you in advance. Prefer a guide? I can add a local guide to any activity.

DAY 1

Arrival in Bogotá BOGOTÁ

Flight from Brussels via Madrid (Paris or Amsterdam also work) to Bogotá. Your private driver is waiting in the arrivals hall with a name sign and takes you to your hotel in the historic La Candelaria district (approx. 30–45 minutes). At 2,640 m altitude you take it easy on the first evening: dinner at the hotel or around the corner.

DAY 2

Bogotá by bike: street art, tejo and gold BOGOTÁ • BREAKFAST

At 8.30 am you set off, a ten-minute walk from your hotel, on a bike tour of about four hours: the murals of La Candelaria, colonial buildings, a market full of tropical fruit and a game of tejo, Colombia's national sport played with gunpowder. After lunch in La Candelaria it is a five-minute walk to the Gold Museum (entrance included; closed on Mondays), with tens of thousands of pre-Columbian gold objects. The evening is free.

DAY 3

Monserate and on to the coffee

View over Bogotá from Monserrate

farm CAFETAL DE LA TRINIDAD (MESITAS DEL COLEGIO) • BREAKFAST • DINNER

In the morning you take the cable car up Monserrate (3,152 m) for the view over the city. If you like, walk back down the official stairway path (approx. 1 hour, only when it is open, and not via the Egipto district). After lunch your driver collects you around 2.30 pm for the drive of about 2.5 hours to the warm western slope of the Andes: Hacienda Cafetal de la Trinidad near Mesitas del Colegio, a coffee and cattle farm dating from 1894 that has been in the same family for five generations. Dinner at the hacienda.

DAY 4

From coffee cherry to cup CAFETAL DE LA TRINIDAD (MESITAS DEL COLEGIO) • BREAKFAST • LUNCH • DINNER

A day on the hacienda. Someone from the family or the plantation takes you among the coffee bushes: picking in season, washing, drying, roasting and tasting. Then a walk (or a horseback ride, on request) across the estate, with views over the valley. Lunch and dinner at the hacienda; the afternoon is for reading, swimming or simply listening to the birds.

DAY 5

To Medellín MEDELLÍN • BREAKFAST

After breakfast a driver takes you in about 2.5–3 hours to Bogotá airport for an early-afternoon flight to Medellín (approx. 1 hour; ticket with checked bag included). At Rionegro airport your driver is waiting and drives you down into the valley to your hotel in El Poblado in about 45 minutes. Free evening in the 'city of eternal spring'.

DAY 6

Medellín: Comuna 13 and Plaza Botero MEDELLÍN • BREAKFAST

In Comuna 13 you discover the story of the district: from one of the most dangerous places in the country to an open-air gallery with escalators, hip-hop and murals. You ride the cable car (Metrocable) over the rooftops and then head to the old centre, with Plaza Botero and its 23 bronze sculptures. The rest of the afternoon and the evening are free.

DAY 7

Guatapé and El Peñol MEDELLÍN • BREAKFAST

Day trip with a private driver (approx. 2 hours' drive each way) to the Guatapé reservoir. If you wish, climb the 700-odd steps of El Peñol rock for the view over hundreds of little islands. Then a boat trip on the lake and a walk through the village with its colourful zócalos (decorated wall panels). My tip for lunch: one of the little restaurants by the lake. Fancy some action? Paintball or kayaking can be arranged on request. You choose the departure time and the pace.

El Peñol rock above the Guatapé reservoir

DAY 8

Free day in Medellín, evening flight to Cartagena CARTAGENA ♦ BREAKFAST

A free day: the botanical garden, the Museo de Antioquia, coffee in Laureles or shopping in El Poblado. Your luggage stays at the hotel. In the afternoon your driver takes you to the airport for the direct flight to Cartagena de Indias (approx. 1h15, departing around 5.30 pm). There a driver meets you for the short ride (approx. 15 minutes) to your hotel in Getsemaní or the walled city.

DAY 9

Cartagena: colonial gem CARTAGENA ♦ BREAKFAST

In the morning, before the heat, a walk through the walled old town (UNESCO): squares, balconies full of bougainvillea, the city walls and the Getsemaní neighbourhood. In the afternoon you wander through the city at your own pace, swim at the hotel or visit San Felipe fortress. At sunset, stroll along the city walls.

DAY 10

Boat trip to the Rosario Islands CARTAGENA ♦ BREAKFAST · LUNCH

You walk or ride to the pier and sail with a licensed boat operator (approx. 1 hour) to the Rosario Islands, in Corales del Rosario National Park. Snorkelling over the coral, swimming in clear water and lunch on an island (included). By late afternoon you are back in Cartagena. A valid yellow fever vaccination is required to enter the national park. For four or more we charter a private boat just for you.

DAY 11

Along the Caribbean coast to Tayrona LOS NARANJOS (TAYRONA) ♦ BREAKFAST

Your private driver collects you at your hotel around 9 am for the longest drive of the trip: about 4.5–5 hours along the coast, via Barranquilla, the Ciénaga Grande lagoon and Santa Marta. After some three hours you stop for lunch at a beach restaurant. In the afternoon you arrive in Los Naranjos, two kilometres from the entrance of Tayrona National Park, where your lodge sits between the river and the sea. The rest of the day is for the beach, the hammock or the bar.

DAY 12

Hiking in Tayrona National Park LOS NARANJOS (TAYRONA) ♦ BREAKFAST

An early start: at 7 am you are at the El Zaino entrance, ahead of the crowds and the heat. You walk through the jungle and past the bays of Cañaveral and Arrecifes to the swimming beaches of La Piscina and Cabo San Juan (approx. 2–2.5 hours each way, with monkeys, giant boulders and palms down to the sea). You swim only where it is allowed. You return at your own pace; a driver takes you back to your lodge. Entrance and mandatory insurance included; yellow fever vaccination required.

Cabo San Juan in Tayrona National Park

DAY 13

To the Kogi village of Teykú and tubing on the Don Diego FINCA CARPE DIEM (BONDA / REGIO MINCA) ♦ BREAKFAST · LUNCH

At 7 am you are collected at your lodge with your luggage. In Calabazo, fifteen minutes down the road, a Kogi guide from Teykú is waiting. With him you walk for about an hour and a half up a forest trail to his village: round huts with thatched roofs, a ceremonial house and sixty to eighty residents. The community receives visitors itself, in small parties and on its own terms. Your guide talks about the Kogi world view, their plants and the weaving of mochilas; you photograph people only after he has asked first. The entry permit and the contribution to the village are included in your trip. After the walk down and lunch (included) you drive three quarters of an hour to the Don Diego river, east of Tayrona. There you float for about an hour on a large tube, with a life jacket and a river guide, through the jungle to where the river meets the sea, with howler monkeys and birds along the banks; a small boat brings you back. Then your driver takes you in about an hour and a half to Finca Carpe Diem, an ecolodge in the hills above Bonda, in the Minca area; the last stretch is by 4x4. It is a full day: you reach the finca around sunset.

Jungle and sunset over Santa Marta FINCA CARPE DIEM (BONDA / REGIO MINCA) ♦ BREAKFAST

The first of two full days at the finca. We give you the walking routes (also offline on your phone) and you head into the Sierra Nevada jungle at your own pace, along the river and through cacao and fruit gardens. Then relax by one of the pools or in the river. Towards evening you do the sunset walk (approx. 2 hours return) to a viewpoint over Santa Marta and the sea.

DAY 15

Waterfalls, cacao and nothing you have to do FINCA CARPE DIEM (BONDA / REGIO MINCA) ♦ BREAKFAST

Today is up to you: a walk to waterfalls and natural swimming holes, a visit to a cacao farm run by a local family (included), a call on a beekeeper, or simply a book in the hammock. Minca is about 45 minutes away by moto-taxi if you still want to see a coffee plantation or the village.

DAY 16

Return flight via Santa Marta and Bogotá AAN BOORD • BREAKFAST

A last breakfast in the jungle. A driver collects you at the finca and drops you in about 1 hour at Santa Marta airport for your flight around 2 pm to Bogotá (approx. 1h30, included). In Bogotá you connect to your evening flight to Europe; we book the connection with a generous margin.

DAY 17

Arrival in Brussels

Arrival in Brussels (via Madrid) with a suitcase full of memories and coffee. A few days later I call you to hear how it went.

Good to know status 30 September 2026

In the week of 21 September 2026 there were road blockades and vehicle arson in and around Santa Marta and along the Troncal del Caribe coastal road, exactly the area of days 11 to 16 (Tayrona, Los Naranjos and the finca near Bonda/Minca). The Belgian FPS Foreign Affairs advised against travel there at the time. In its update of 30 September 2026 the FPS reports that the situation has calmed down and that travel via the Troncal del Caribe is possible again, but that caution is still required and journeys can take longer because of checkpoints. We follow the advice right up to your departure. If the FPS advises against the area again, or if you do not feel comfortable with it, we replace those five days without fuss by an alternative based in Cartagena: the mangroves of La Boquilla, San Basilio de Palenque and two nights on Isla Grande in the Rosario Islands, with the return flight from Cartagena.

ALTERNATIVE day 11: Getsemaní and the mangroves of La Boquilla · day 12: San Basilio de Palenque · day 13: To Isla Grande, Rosario Islands · day 14: A full day on the island · day 15: Back to Cartagena

What I arrange for you

- 1 Airport pickup
At El Dorado airport in Bogotá your driver waits in the arrivals hall with a name sign; he tracks your flight and also waits if it is delayed. The drive to your hotel in La Candelaria takes 30 to 45 minutes. A driver is also waiting after each domestic flight (Medellín, Cartagena). On the last day you are collected at the finca and dropped at Santa Marta airport for your flight to Bogotá and your connection to Europe.
- 2 Hotels
Every night is booked and confirmed in advance, at the level you choose: Budget, Comfort or Premium. Prefer another hotel? I change it.
- 3 Transport
A private driver and private transfers for the whole route, with domestic flights, trains and boats where they make sense. All booked in advance.
- 4 Activities, at your pace
The activities and entrance tickets on the route. No guide or group travels with you: you set the pace, and anything you would rather skip, you simply leave out.
- 5 Eat wherever you like
Breakfast is included, as are the meals at remote camps and lodges where there is no alternative. For the rest I give you my restaurant tips, but you are completely free to choose where you eat. I never send you somewhere because it earns me something.

Estimated prices per person

PER PERSON, BASED ON 2 TRAVELLERS, EXCL. INTERNATIONAL FLIGHT

ACCOMMODATION LEVEL	Self-drive rental car, everything pre-booked	Private driver private transfers and driver
Budget simple, clean and well located	—	€2,210 p.p.
Comfort characterful mid-range	—	€2,550 p.p.
Premium the best addresses on the ground	—	€3,480 p.p.

WITH 4 TRAVELLERS	approx. 14% off per person: you share the car and driver. E.g. Comfort, private driver: approx. €2,195 p.p.
TRAVELLING SOLO	supplement of approx. 60%: you carry the room and transport alone. E.g. Comfort, private driver: approx. €4,080 p.p.

INTERNATIONAL FLIGHT

I book your flight as part of your trip; the flight price for your dates is in your personal quote. Return flight Brussels–Bogotá not included: allow about € 690–980 p.p. depending on the month (cheapest in February and March, most expensive in December and July). I find you the best flight with your quote.

SELF-DRIVE: NOT OFFERED ON THIS ROUTE

We do not offer self-drive in Colombia as a standard option. The route is stitched together by three domestic flights, and in Bogotá, Medellín and Cartagena you do not need a car: traffic is heavy, with number-plate driving bans (pico y placa). The Belgian FPS Foreign Affairs advises against renting a car yourself and strongly advises against driving at night. The only section where a rental car works is the coast: from Cartagena to Tayrona and the finca, returning the car at Santa Marta airport. On request I arrange it for you, as long as the travel advice for the coastal road is favourable. Expect a supplement of approx. €60–90 per person (one-way fee included; fuel, tolls and parking are paid by you), and the last stretch to the finca is done in the lodge's jeep.

WITH A PRIVATE DRIVER

You do not have one driver for the whole trip but a trusted, licensed driver per region: in Bogotá (also for the drive to the coffee hacienda and back to the airport), in Medellín, in Cartagena (also for the 4.5–5 hour drive to Tayrona) and around Santa Marta, where a driver with a 4x4 takes you to the finca and the airport. He collects you at your hotel or the airport at the time stated in your travel documents, stops wherever you like on the way and drives in daylight only. Within the cities you walk or take a taxi arranged by the hotel. Drivers speak Spanish and sometimes a little English; I can always interpret over WhatsApp.

ESTIMATED PRICES

Estimated prices: per person, based on 2 travellers sharing a room, excl. international flight, estimated from desk research (2027 price level). The binding price is the one in your personal proposal and booking confirmation.

Estimated price. In high season the price can be higher, in low season lower; your exact price is in your personal quote.

Three accommodation levels

Budget

Simple, well-reviewed hotels and guesthouses with private bathroom (e.g. Hotel Casa de la Vega in La Candelaria, Hotel Dorado La 70 or Hotel Vivre in Medellín, Hotel Galería La Trinidad in Getsemani), a simple eco-hostel with private room near the Tayrona entrance and the simplest private room at Finca Carpe Diem. At the coffee hacienda you stay at Cafetal de la Trinidad itself at every level.

Comfort

The places I selected (founder's picks): Hotel Muisca in a colonial house in La Candelaria, Hacienda Cafetal de la Trinidad, Sites Hotel (spacious studios with kitchenette) in El Poblado, Casa Pizarro Hotel Boutique in Getsemani, the beach lodge Senda Maloka Barlovento in Los Naranjos and an ecohut with king-size bed at Finca Carpe Diem. If a place is full we choose an equivalent alternative (e.g. Hotel Casa Deco in Bogotá, Hotel Casa Canabal in Cartagena).

Premium

Boutique hotels in prime city locations: Hotel de la Ópera in La Candelaria, a design hotel in El Poblado and a boutique hotel inside Cartagena's walls. At the coffee hacienda the best room at Cafetal de la Trinidad, near Tayrona the best sea-front room or cabaña (Senda Maloka Barlovento or a comparable beach villa) and at Finca Carpe Diem the tree hut or the best ecohut. To be honest: on the coast near Tayrona and in the jungle this is charming and comfortable, not five-star luxury (approx. €110–260 per room); true luxury on request.

Possible guided moments

Prefer a guide? I can add a local guide to any activity.

- ✦ Kogi day: a Kogi guide from the village of Teykú itself; the community only receives visitors this way, so the guide is always included
- ✦ Medellín: a local guide from Comuna 13
- ✦ Cartagena: a private guide for the morning city walk
- ✦ Tayrona: a local guide for the hike to the bays
- ✦ Sierra Nevada: a guide for the walks around the finca
- ✦ Prefer a guide? I can add a local guide to any activity.

Ideas to adapt the route

- Shorter (12–13 days): two instead of three nights in Medellín and at the finca, or drop the coffee hacienda and fly straight on to Medellín
- Prefer the classic Coffee Region? Swap Cafetal de la Trinidad for three nights around Salento with the Cocora Valley (flight to Pereira)
- A night on Isla Grande in the Rosario Islands instead of the day trip
- An extra day in Bogotá for the Zipaquirá salt cathedral, or a night in Guatapé instead of a day trip
- A last night in Bogotá or Santa Marta if you prefer not to do the day-16 connection in one go
- No Tayrona (closure period or travel advice)? Then we swap days 11–15 for La Boquilla, Palenque and two nights on Isla Grande, with the return flight from Cartagena

- Longer: a few beach days in Palomino or the four-day trek to the Ciudad Perdida (by law only with a licensed guide from one of the four authorised operators), if the travel advice allows

Included

- ✓ 15 nights at the comfort level of your choice (Budget, Comfort or Premium): city hotels, a coffee hacienda, a beach lodge near Tayrona and a jungle finca (double room, breakfast included)
- ✓ Airport pickup in Bogotá and drop-off at Santa Marta airport
- ✓ All private transfers and private drivers: Bogotá–coffee hacienda–airport, Medellín, Guatapé, Cartagena–Tayrona, Tayrona–finca and finca–airport
- ✓ Domestic flights Bogotá–Medellín, Medellín–Cartagena and Santa Marta–Bogotá (incl. 1 checked bag)
- ✓ Bogotá bike tour, coffee tour on the hacienda and the visit to the Kogi village of Teykú with a Kogi guide from the village itself (the community only receives visitors this way)
- ✓ All listed excursions, boat trips and entrance fees (incl. Gold Museum, Monserrate cable car, El Peñol, Rosario Islands with snorkelling, Tayrona National Park, tubing on the Don Diego, cacao farm)
- ✓ 3 lunches in places with no alternative (coffee hacienda, Rosario Islands, Kogi day) and 2 dinners (coffee hacienda)

Not included

- International return flight Brussels–Bogotá (optional add-on; allow approx. €690–980 pp, depending on the month)
- Other meals and drinks (e.g. dinners at the finca; you get my restaurant recommendations)
- Tips for drivers (and guides, if you take one)
- Travel and cancellation insurance
- Yellow fever and other vaccinations
- Personal expenses and optional activities (e.g. paintball in Guatapé, horse riding, beekeeper, moto-taxi to Minca)

Practical information

VISA (BELGIAN CITIZENS)

No visa required for tourist stays up to 90 days (extendable). Passport valid for the length of stay (6 months recommended) and return ticket. The free online Check-MIG form of Migración Colombia is officially not mandatory but strongly recommended (complete it between 72 and 1 hour before the flight, also when leaving Colombia); some airlines ask for it. Use only the official website, not paid intermediaries.

HEALTH

Yellow fever vaccination is strongly recommended and required to enter all national parks, on this route Tayrona National Park and Corales del Rosario (Rosario Islands); at least 10 days before arrival. Wanda (ITM) explicitly lists Tayrona as a risk area. Dengue occurs, especially on the coast: protect against mosquitoes; the travel clinic decides whether malaria tablets are needed for the Sierra Nevada. Altitude in Bogotá (2,640 m). Consult a travel clinic (ITM/Wanda) 6 to 8 weeks before departure.

CURRENCY & PAYMENT

Colombian peso (COP). Cards widely accepted in cities; cash needed in villages, in Tayrona and at the finca (cards carry a surcharge). Withdraw cash only at ATMs inside banks or shopping centres; the last ATMs before Tayrona are in Santa Marta.

FLIGHT TIME FROM BRUSSELS

No direct flight; approx. 13–16 hours with a connection in Madrid, Paris or Amsterdam (nonstop Europe–Bogotá sector approx. 10.5–11 hours).

TIME DIFFERENCE

UTC-5: 6 hours behind Belgium in winter, 7 hours in summer.

LANGUAGE

Spanish; limited English outside tourist areas.

MEALS

Breakfast is included every day, as are the meals at the coffee hacienda and lunch on the Rosario Islands and on the Kogi day, where there is no alternative. For the other meals you get my restaurant recommendations, but you are completely free to choose where and when you eat: I never steer you to expensive restaurants in return for a commission.

GUIDES

By default you travel without a guide. Prefer a guide? I can add a local guide to any activity.

As of September 2026 — check diplomatie.belgium.be (travel advice) and wanda.be (health) before you travel.

Travelling responsibly

We choose small, locally rooted places to stay: a family hacienda that has grown coffee for five generations, a beach lodge on the edge of Tayrona and an ecolodge in the Sierra Nevada that works with people from the valley. If you take a guide, they come from the neighbourhood itself (Comuna 13, Cartagena, Tayrona). In the Kogi village of Teykú you are a guest on the community's terms: with your own party only, with a guide from the village itself, with an entry permit and a contribution that go directly to the village, and without photographs of people who do not want them. In Tayrona and on the Rosario Islands we ask for reef-safe sunscreen and you stay on the trails; the sacred site of Pueblito is closed at the request of the indigenous communities and we respect that. Flight CO₂ emissions can be offset through a certified project.
