My personal favourite: my recommended 16-day route through West Africa, fully arranged and entirely private. Vibrant Dakar, poignant Gorée Island and Lac Rose, giraffes and rhinos among the baobabs of Bandia and the quiet Somone lagoon. Via the shell island of Fadiouth you travel on to the Sine Saloum Delta, explored by pirogue, and in Toubacouta the Bamboung marine reserve, a game drive in Fathala and thousands of roosting birds at sunset await. You take the ferry across to the Gambian coast, then drive to the beach of Cap Skirring, where your trip ends; a short domestic flight takes you to Dakar, where you spend the last night close to the airport. You start whenever you like and change the route as you wish.

Highlights

- ★ Gorée Island (UNESCO) and the House of Slaves
- ★ Salt harvesting at Lac Rose and a pirogue to car-free Ngor Island
- ★ Giraffes, rhinos and zebras among ancient baobabs in the Bandia reserve, and by pirogue or kayak through the mangroves of the Somone lagoon
- ★ Shell island Fadiouth, pirogue trips through the Sine Saloum Delta mangroves and the Palmarin salt flats
- ★ Toubacouta: the village-run Bamboung reserve, a game drive in Fathala with the rare giant eland and thousands of roosting birds at sunset
- ★ The Gambia: Abuko Nature Reserve, the sacred Kachikally crocodile pool, Tanji fish landing and the Makasutu mangroves
- ★ You finish on the beach at Cap Skirring, fly to Dakar in fifty minutes and enjoy a quiet last day close to the airport, with a driver door to door

DAY 4 Giraffes among the baobabs of the Bandia reserve

DAY 5 The shared cemetery on a shell mound at Fadiouth

My recommended route

This is the route as I put it together for you. It is a starting point, not a fixed programme: leave out what doesn't appeal to you, add what you would like to do and travel at your own pace. Everything below is arranged for you in advance.

DAY 1

Brussels – Dakar DAKAR

Direct flight from Brussels to Dakar (approx. 6 hours, arriving late afternoon). Your private driver waits in the arrivals hall of Blaise Diagne airport (AIBD) with a name board and takes you in about an hour to your hotel on or near the Corniche, the coast road along the ocean. The evening is free: I give you my favourite places for a first yassa poulet, chicken in a tangy onion and lemon sauce, and you choose where to eat.

DAY 2

Dakar and Gorée Island DAKAR ♦ BREAKFAST

Your driver drops you at the ferry (20 min) to Gorée. You walk at your own pace through the car-free lanes, past the pastel houses and the House of Slaves, a moving memorial to the transatlantic slave trade. In the afternoon your driver takes you along the Corniche, past the African Renaissance Monument and to the Soumbédioune craft market.

DAY 3

Lac Rose, Ngor and the Village des Arts DAKAR ♦ BREAKFAST

Early start with your driver for Lac Rose (Retba, approx. 1 hour), where salt collectors harvest salt by hand from the pink water; a 4x4 takes you across the dunes to the ocean. Lunch at your own pace by the sea in Dakar and a pirogue to car-free Ngor Island. In the afternoon the studios of the Village des Arts and sunset at the Mamelles lighthouse. Prefer a rest or beach day? Just say so and your driver adapts the day.

Salt boats on pink Lac Rose (Retba), seen from above

DAY 4

Via the Bandia reserve to the Somone lagoon SOMONE ♦ BREAKFAST

With your driver south on the motorway to the Bandia reserve (approx. 1 hour). You set off early, because the animals are most active in the morning (the reserve is open daily from 8 am to 6 pm). In one of the reserve's 4x4s, with Bandia's compulsory guide on board, you spend about 1.5 to 2 hours among ancient baobabs and acacias, looking for giraffes, rhinos, zebras, buffalo and eland. Then it is just a quarter of an hour to Somone, a quiet village on a lagoon that the community itself manages as a nature reserve. In the late afternoon you explore the mangroves by pirogue or kayak (your choice), where pelicans, herons, terns and, in season, flamingos rest. Free evening on the beach.

Via shell island Fadiouth to the Sine Saloum SINE SALOUM (PALMARIN/NDANGANE) ♦ BREAKFAST · DINNER

A short travel day along the Petite Côte (approx. 1.5–2 hours' driving in total). In Joal you walk across the long wooden bridge to Fadiouth, the island literally built on shells, with its granaries on stilts and the shared Christian-Muslim cemetery that symbolises Senegalese religious tolerance; a young local from the village tourist office walks with you, which is part of the entrance fee. After lunch at your own pace your driver continues to the Sine Saloum Delta, a UNESCO biosphere reserve of mangroves, bolongs (creeks) and islands. Stay in a waterside lodge, dinner included (there are no restaurants nearby).

DAY 6

Pirogue through the delta and the Palmarin salt flats SINE SALOUM (PALMARIN/NDANGANE) ♦ BREAKFAST · DINNER

Morning trip in a private pirogue with a local boatman through the mangroves, past fishing villages and oyster beds. After a midday rest you explore the Palmarin area by bike or horse cart: the salt wells in the tannes (salt flats), where the village women harvest salt under colourful tarpaulins, the lagoons of the community reserve and a Serer village. Sunset over the lagoon and dinner at the lodge.

Mangroves along a creek in the Sine Saloum Delta

DAY 7

To Toubacouta and the Bamboung marine reserve TOUBACOUTA ♦ BREAKFAST · DINNER

Via Kaolack to Toubacouta in the south of the delta (approx. 3 hours). In the afternoon a private pirogue with a boatman from the villages takes you to the community-managed Bamboung marine protected area; with luck you will see dolphins. Sunset over the bolongs and dinner at the lodge.

DAY 8

The Fathala reserve and the birds of the bolongs TOUBACOUTA ♦ BREAKFAST · DINNER

Early in the morning, when the animals are most active, a 15-minute drive takes you to the Fathala reserve, 6,000 hectares of dry forest on the edge of the Saloum Delta National Park. The game drive is in the reserve's open vehicle with a ranger at the wheel: giraffes, rhinos, buffalo, red colobus monkeys and above all the rare giant (Derby) eland, for which Fathala runs a conservation programme. I deliberately do not book the 'lion walk' with tame lions. After a quiet afternoon at the lodge a pirogue takes you to the reposoir des oiseaux, a mangrove islet where thousands of herons, egrets and cormorants settle for the night at sunset. Dinner at the lodge.

By ferry to the Gambian coast GAMBIAANSE KUST (KOLOLI/TANJI) ♦ BREAKFAST

Your driver takes you in half an hour to the border at Karang and, after the formalities (he knows the border posts and helps you), on to the ferry port of Barra at the mouth of the Gambia River. There you take the ferry with your luggage to Banjul (the crossing itself takes 30 to 45 minutes; allow 1 to 2.5 hours including the wait). On the other side your English-speaking Gambian driver is waiting and takes you in half an hour to the Atlantic coast at Kololi/Tanji. If the ferry is not running, your driver goes round via the Senegambia Bridge (about 6 hours). Arrival in the afternoon and time for the beach.

DAY 10

Banjul, Abuko and Tanji GAMBIAANSE KUST (KOLOLI/TANJI) ♦ BREAKFAST

With your driver to Albert Market in Banjul, the small Abuko Nature Reserve (monkeys, birds) and the sacred crocodile pool of Kachikally in Bakau. At dusk, experience the lively fish landing at Tanji.

DAY 11

Makasutu and birdwatching GAMBIAANSE KUST (KOLOLI/TANJI) ♦ BREAKFAST

A morning for the birds: The Gambia counts more than 500 bird species, and along the coast and in Abuko you will see dozens. Then a pirogue trip through the Makasutu mangroves and a walk in the culture forest. Free afternoon by the sea.

DAY 12

From the Gambian coast to Cap Skirring CAP SKIRRING ♦ BREAKFAST

You leave in the morning, because the border road is only open in daytime. Your Gambian driver takes you via Brikama to the Giboro–Séléti border crossing (about 1 to 1.5 hours; allow 1 hour for the border). On the Senegalese side my trusted driver in Casamance is waiting; I know him personally. He drives you straight on to Cap Skirring (about 3 hours). Arrival in the afternoon, before dark, with time for the beach.

DAY 13 Beach day in Cap Skirring CAP SKIRRING ♦ BREAKFAST

A free day on one of the finest beaches in West Africa. In the evening I recommend fish and mangrove oysters at one of the beach restaurants; you choose which.

DAY 14 By plane to Dakar DAKAR (NEAR THE AIRPORT) ♦ BREAKFAST

Free morning on the beach. In the afternoon your driver takes you in ten minutes to the small Cap Skirring airport for the domestic flight to Dakar (about 50 minutes, included in the price). At Dakar airport you are met and taken to your hotel close to the airport, so tomorrow you fly home without stress.

DAY 15 Free day and flight home NACHTVLUCHT / OVERNIGHT FLIGHT ♦ BREAKFAST

A quiet last day: sleep in, the pool or a nearby beach, and after check-out you can leave your luggage at the hotel until you leave. In the evening your driver takes you to Dakar airport for the nonstop flight to Brussels.

DAY 16 Arrival in Brussels

Early-morning arrival in Brussels. In the week after you get home I call you for a debrief: how was it, and what could be better?

Colourful pirogues on the beach at Tanji, The Gambia

What I arrange for you

1 Airport pickup

Your private driver waits with a name board in the arrivals hall of Blaise Diagne airport (Dakar) and takes you to your hotel in about 1 hour. On day 14 your Casamance driver takes you in ten minutes to the small Cap Skirring airport. After the domestic flight (about 50 min) you are met at Dakar airport and taken to your hotel close to the airport. On the evening of day 15 a driver takes you back to the airport for the flight to Brussels.

2 Hotels

Every night is booked and confirmed in advance, at the level you choose: Budget, Comfort or Premium. Prefer another hotel? I change it.

3 Transport

A private driver and private transfers for the whole route, with domestic flights, trains and boats where they make sense. All booked in advance.

4 Activities, at your pace

The activities and entrance tickets on the route. No guide or group travels with you: you set the pace, and anything you would rather skip, you simply leave out.

5 Eat wherever you like

Breakfast is included, as are the meals at remote camps and lodges where there is no alternative. For the rest I give you my restaurant tips, but you are completely free to choose where you eat. I never send you somewhere because it earns me something.

Estimated prices per person

PER PERSON, BASED ON 2 TRAVELLERS, EXCL. INTERNATIONAL FLIGHT

ACCOMMODATION LEVEL	Self-drive rental car, everything pre-booked	Private driver private transfers and driver
Budget simple, clean and well located	—	€2,240 p.p.
Comfort characterful mid-range	—	€2,710 p.p.
Premium the best addresses on the ground	—	€3,780 p.p.

WITH 4 TRAVELLERS

approx. 15% off per person: you share the car and driver. E.g. Comfort, private driver: approx. €2,305 p.p.

TRAVELLING SOLO

supplement of approx. 74%: you carry the room and transport alone. E.g. Comfort, private driver: approx. €4,715 p.p.

INTERNATIONAL FLIGHT

I book your flight as part of your trip; the flight price for your dates is in your personal quote. Return flight Brussels–Dakar not included: allow about € 550–860 p.p. depending on the month (cheapest in November, most expensive in July and December). The domestic flight Cap Skirring–Dakar is included in the price. I find you the best flight with your quote.

SELF-DRIVE: NOT OFFERED ON THIS ROUTE

I deliberately do not offer self-drive in Senegal and The Gambia. Traffic is unpredictable (overloaded trucks, livestock and unlit vehicles), you cross an international border twice, and a rental car may not enter The Gambia or be dropped in Banjul. In Casamance the Belgian Foreign Affairs advice is also not to travel alone. With a dedicated driver who knows the roads, the border posts and the people, you travel more safely and see more.

WITH A PRIVATE DRIVER

From day 2 to day 9 you have the same French-speaking driver with an air-conditioned car; he knows the route, helps at the border and stops wherever you like. On day 9 he drops you at the ferry in Barra. On the other side, in Banjul, an English-speaking Gambian driver is waiting; he drives you around until day 12 and takes you to the Giboro border. In Casamance (days 12–14) my trusted local driver drives you: I know him personally and he knows the region like no one else. On day 14 he also takes you to Cap Skirring airport. In Dakar a driver is waiting for the short ride to your hotel near the airport, and on the evening of day 15 he takes you back to the airport.

ESTIMATED PRICES

Estimated prices: per person, based on 2 travellers sharing a room, excl. international flight, estimated from desk research (2027 price level). The binding price is the one in your personal proposal and booking confirmation.

Estimated price. In high season the price can be higher, in low season lower; your exact price is in your personal quote.

Three accommodation levels

Budget

Simple, clean and well-reviewed guesthouses and campements (approx. €30–50 per room), air-conditioned where possible: e.g. a family guesthouse in Dakar, a guesthouse by the Somone lagoon and a beach campement in Cap Skirring.

Comfort

Characterful mid-range hotels, eco-lodges and maisons d'hôtes (approx. €60–110 per room), often with a pool: a boutique guesthouse in Dakar, a villa guesthouse by the Somone lagoon, a waterside lodge in the Saloum and a beach hotel on the Gambian coast.

Premium

The best available in each place (approx. €115–190 per room): a four- or five-star seafront hotel in Dakar, the finest lodge in the Saloum, a sea-view beach hotel in Cap Skirring and a boutique lodge on the Gambian coast. In small places 'premium' stays small-scale and charming rather than international luxury.

Possible guided moments

Prefer a guide? I can add a local guide to any activity.

- ★ Day 2: a walk on Gorée with an island guide, for the history of the House of Slaves
- ★ Day 6: a Serer guide for the salt flats and villages of Palmarin
- ★ Day 10: a licensed Gambian guide for Banjul, Abuko and Kachikally
- ★ Day 11: your own birding guide on the Gambian coast

Ideas to adapt the route

- Shorter (10–12 days): skip Somone and the second night in Toubacouta, or spend one night less on the Gambian coast
- A third night in Cap Skirring: you stay by the sea on day 14 and fly to Dakar on day 15, instead of the night near the airport, if the Air Sénégal timetable allows
- Longer (up to 21 days): extra beach days in Cap Skirring or on the Gambian coast, or two days upriver along the Gambia River (Janjanbureh, Wassu stone circles)
- +2 nights Saint-Louis & Lompoul: from Dakar via the orange Lompoul dunes (lunch at a tented camp) to UNESCO-listed Saint-Louis, with Djoudj bird sanctuary (Nov–Apr) and a carriage ride, then via Thiès to the Petite Côte
- Without Casamance: more time on the Gambian coast or upriver, then back to Dakar by the Barra ferry
- Every hotel can be swapped: e.g. Budget on the road and Premium for the beach days

Included

- ✓ 14 nights at your chosen level (Budget, Comfort or Premium), double room with breakfast; on the last day you can leave your luggage at the hotel near the airport after check-out until you leave
- ✓ Breakfast every day, and dinner at the remote lodges in the Sine Saloum and Toubacouta (days 5–8), where there are no restaurants nearby
- ✓ Pickup at Dakar airport with a name board on day 1; on day 14 the transfer to Cap Skirring airport, the pickup at Dakar airport and the short ride to your hotel near the airport; on day 15 the transfer to the airport for your flight home
- ✓ Domestic flight Cap Skirring–Dakar on day 14 (Air Sénégal, about 50 minutes)
- ✓ Private air-conditioned car with the same French-speaking driver in Senegal (days 2–9, up to the Barra ferry port), an English-speaking driver in The Gambia (days 9–12, from the ferry in Banjul to the Giboro border) and my trusted local driver in Casamance (days 12–14, up to Cap Skirring airport), fuel and tolls included
- ✓ All listed excursions and entrance fees: Gorée ferry, Lac Rose (4x4), Ngor pirogue, Bandia (4x4 with the compulsory reserve guide), pirogue or kayak on the Somone lagoon, Fadiouth, private pirogues in the Saloum, Bamboing and the bird roost, bike or horse cart in Palmarin, Fathala game drive, Barra–Banjul ferry, Abuko, Kachikally, Makasutu

Not included

- International return flight Brussels–Dakar (optional; allow approx. €550–860 pp, depending on the month)
- Any Gambian entry formalities (if reintroduced)
- Vaccinations and malaria prophylaxis
- Lunches and the other dinners: I give you my restaurant tips and you choose freely where to eat (allow approx. €15–30 pp per day)
- Tips for drivers, boatmen and rangers (guideline €5–8 pp per day)
- A local guide for an activity, if you would like one (on request)
- Travel and cancellation insurance

Practical information

VISA (BELGIAN CITIZENS)

Senegal: no visa required for tourist stays up to 90 days (passport valid at least 6 months). Senegal announced a reciprocal e-visa in 2025 for countries that require visas from Senegalese nationals (incl. Schengen states), but according to France Diplomatie (September 2026) EU citizens are still exempt. Check before departure. The Gambia: no visa for EU citizens (up to 90 days); valid passport and return ticket. The former 'entry clearance' requirement for some EU nationalities appears to have been abandoned, but some official sites are outdated. Confirm with Gambian Immigration/embassy before departure. The border crossings at Karang and Séléti mean many stamps: allow at least 3 blank passport pages.

HEALTH

Yellow fever: vaccination recommended for Senegal and The Gambia (ITG/Wanda); certificate mandatory when arriving from a risk country and often checked in practice, so always get vaccinated, at least 10 days before departure. Malaria: present, especially June–December; prophylaxis recommended in The Gambia and Casamance and, depending on season/region, elsewhere in Senegal. Consult a travel clinic or wanda.be.

CURRENCY & PAYMENT

West African CFA franc (XOF, fixed at 655.957 per euro) in Senegal; Gambian dalasi (GMD) in The Gambia. Euros easy to exchange; ATMs in towns.

FLIGHT TIME FROM BRUSSELS

Return Brussels–Dakar: approx. 6 hours nonstop with Brussels Airlines (daily in winter), both ways. On the afternoon of day 14 you fly with Air Sénégal from Cap Skirring to Dakar (about 50 minutes, included in the trip price). You spend that night close to the airport, take day 15 at your own pace and fly nonstop to Brussels in the evening. Luggage on the domestic flight: 23 kg checked baggage and 12 kg cabin baggage per person (Air Sénégal rules). Alternatives for the international flight: Royal Air Maroc via Casablanca, TAP via Lisbon, Vueling via Barcelona.

TIME DIFFERENCE

GMT: 1 hour behind Belgium in winter, 2 hours behind in summer.

LANGUAGE

French (official) and Wolof in Senegal; English (official), Mandinka and Wolof in The Gambia.

MEALS

Breakfast is included every day, and so is dinner at the remote lodges in the Sine Saloum and Toubacouta (days 5–8). For the other meals I give you my addresses and favourite restaurants, but I don't include them in the price: that way you choose where and when you eat.

GUIDES

By default you travel without a guide. Prefer a guide? I can add a local guide to any activity.

As of September 2026 — check diplomatie.belgium.be (travel advice) and wanda.be (health) before you travel.

Travelling responsibly

I work with small-scale eco-lodges and campements that employ local staff. The Somone lagoon and the Bamboing marine reserve are managed by the villages themselves: part of the entrance fees goes directly to the community. Bandia and Fathala are fenced private reserves where animals have been (re)introduced; Fathala takes part in the conservation of the endangered giant eland. I deliberately do not book Fathala's 'lion walk' with tame lions: walking with lions habituated to people as cubs keeps that model going, and visitors describe lions being driven on with sticks. You only do the game drive. Your drivers, the boatmen and the rangers are paid fairly, and in Casamance you travel with a driver from the region itself, so the money stays local. You cross the Gambia River on the ordinary Barra-Banjul ferry, just like the locals. At the end I do include one short domestic flight from Cap Skirring to Dakar. To be honest: that is an extra flight. But it replaces a long full-day drive back by road, with two more border crossings, and it means you never drive the same road twice. I ask you to minimise plastic (refillable filter bottle). On Gorée I ask you to visit the House of Slaves with respect: it is a place of remembrance.
